SOCIETY'S WINTER DIVERSION

Is to Be Had in Open Air as Well as Heated Ball Rooms-Events of the Week.

The Johnson reception and party, an account of which appeared in Friday morning's HERALD, was the principal social event of the past week. A very large number of guests were present, and the entertaining was done on a grand scale. Besides this there was the wedding anniversary reception of Dr. and Mrs. Campbell Fair at St. Mark's rectory, which has also been thoroughly reviewed heretofore. But the great source of amusement has been the excellent sleighing. There has been sleighride party after sleighride party, and it looks as though the fan would continue for weeks to come.

The women of the St. Cecilia society have decided to give an annual ball this season, and have begun planning for the event. The date is not yet announced, but it will be some time before Lent. Division No. 4, better known as Mrs.D. W. Gidding's "Twenty," will give a dancing party for St. Cecilia's sake, at Sweet's hotel tomorrow night. The ladies who will receive are Mrs. P. H. Carroll, Mrs. G. G. Briggs, Mrs. Lucy Mahan, Miss Frances Cowies, Mrs. Fred Clark and Mrs. D. W. Gaddings. Braun's orchestra will furnish music, and it is expected that the rooms will be handsomely deco-
